WAY IMPROVEMENTS.

Sale of Bonds to Build the Toledo. Elkhart & Chicago-The Northwestern Deal May Be Perfected.

If plans contemplated are carried out more money will be expended in improvements to railroad property in 1902 than in any former year. Expenditures already cited in the aggregate reach $200,000,000, and this does not include the millions usually charged up to operating expenses, but covers the cost of digging tunnels in New York city and elsewhere, improving roadbeds with millions of tons of steel rails, extensive ballasting, new bridges, cars, locomotives, etc., all of which insures a prosperous year alike for manufacturers and men employed in the interests of the railways. The Pennsylvania will spend at least $27,000,000 for equipment and improvements to the system, initial work on the tunnel and terminal stations in New York alone. Plans now contemplated by the New York Central are estimated to cost more than $40,000,000, including $5,000,000 for the betterment of the system between New York and Buffalo. The Baltimore & Ohio has added $20,000,000 to its capital for the purpose of reducing grades of the main line, equipping its Western lines, bringing them all up to the highest standard of ef-DITTEMORE-John W. Dittemore died Monday, ficiency required to make them profitable adjuncts to the parent system. In Western territory improvements will be made on an extensive scale. The Union and Southern Pacific, now under joint ownership, have planned improvements approximating $25,000,000, and the Santa Fe has outlined plans for extension and betterments which will cost fully as much. The Northern Pacific-Burlington-Great Northern combination is perfecting its consolidation of these systems at an expense of at improvements to its various lines. The management of the Grand Trunk has dedouble-tracked. The officials have also decided to add materially to the equipment, and are ordering new mammoth engines, new cars and large quantities of steel rails. The time for holders of the common stock of the Northern Pacific Railway Company and the stock of the Great Northern Rallway Company to deposit their holdings with the Northern Securities Company, pursuant to the plan for the settlement of the trouble of last spring, expired at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Officials of the Northern Securities Company, at New York, declined to give out any particulars of the amount of the stock of the companies deposited with, or purchased by the Northern Securities Company, under the agreement made. It was learned, however, that practically all of the Northern Pacific stock had been deposited. According to the New York Commercial Advertiser, a fairly considerable percentage of the Great Northern Rallroad stock had not been deposited with the Northern Securities Company, because the holders of it, persons in the Northwest, and along the line of the road, and others preferred to retain the stock pending the outcome of the attempt of the State of Minnesota to test the question before the United States Supreme Court as to the legality of the position of the Northern Securities Company.

Large Sale of Bonds. H. Leone Miller, of Fairmount, Ind., has formed a syndicate of English capitalists, who have bought the entire issue of first mortgage bonds, $3,209,000, of the Nebraska & Gulf Railway. Final papers have been signed. The North American Trust Company, of New York, will act as trustee. This same syndicate has signed a contract with Mr. Miller to buy the bonds and furnish money to build the Toledo, Elkhart & Chicago Railway, which will be built from Benton marbor, Mich., to Toledo, O., through Dowagiac, Cassopolis, Elkhart, Lagrange and Angola, and south from Lagrange through Albion, Columbia City, Huntington, Marion, Elwood and Lapel to Indianapolis. H. Leone Miller is the principal holder and will be general manager of the Nebraska & Guly Railway.

D. Rogers, of New York, states that a new railway line, to cost $40,000,000, will be built from a port on the Gulf of Mexico north of Tampico, crossing the country to the Pacific coast and then building up through the States of Sonora and Sinaloa. opening up rich mining regions. This line will have its terminus on the border at Eagle Pass. Mr. Rogers claims the largest part of the line has been surveyed and that there will be no delay in beginning work, as capital has been subscribed in London and New York.

The general managers of the roads centering at Indianapolis held their regular monthly meeting yesterday. General Superintendent Turner, of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, acted as chairman. Superintendent Zion was instructed to purchase 100 tons of new steel rail weighing eighty-five pounds to the yard; H. B. Stoors, the new general superintendent of the Lake Erie & Western, was elected a member of the association. The United States Postal Department notified the managers that it would abandon the subpostoffice at the Union Station on April 15.

Joseph Ramsey, president of the Wheeling & Lake Erie, says the company will lay 100 miles of eighty-pound rails on that road between Masillon and Toledo, making improvements to the Adena branch and installing heavier coal unloading machinery at the dock at Port Huron. The amount to be expended in this direction will total over $1,000,000. He is quoted as saying that these improvements do not include $2,500,000 to be spent in equipment. Contracts for 2,500 cars, including 2,000 coal cars and 500 box, have been awarded. The company has also ordered twenty-five heavy locomotives.

All speed records have been broken by the Chicago & Alton Railroad. This does not apply to the running time of trains. but to the rapidity with which it recovered from the recent fire in the Union Station at Chicago. While the fire was still raging in the Union ticket office it had sixteen forms of tickets running through the presses, and before the fire was well out it had a temporary booth arranged in the building fully stocked with new cases and a complete line of coupon tickets, mileage books, commutation and local tickets. There was no delay whatever in ticketing

Samuel B. Sweet, general freight agent of the Lake Erie & Western, says the freight earnings this month will hardly be equal to those of January, 1901, owing to the impossibility of furnishing cars to move the business offered. He says the car shortage is again becoming fully as pronounced as it was in December. The Lake Shore is unable to furnish any extra equipment to the Lake Erie & Western, and as a consequence the latter is unable to furnish the cars called for. He thinks the prospects are excellent for a good business the entire year, so large a volume of miscellaneous freight is there to be moved. A bill to license ticket scalpers has been introduced in the New York Legislature by Assemblyman J. E. Smith. It provides that all persons who desire to traffic in railroad tickets, other than duly authorized railroad agents and others, shall file a bond with the railroad commissioner. The bond is to be in the sum of $2,000 and if the railroad commissioner issues a license fee, the same to be placed at $2,000. Other railroad ticket agents and others, must stamp their name and address on all tickets thus sold. This is designed to give the purchaser a cause of

> Egg Market Rules Easier on Increasing Receipts-Retail Trade Is Good

> > in Constituent Territory.

A stormy day checked trade somewhat on Tuesday, but in the aggregate a fairly good business was transacted and reports from traveling salesmen are, as a fule, good. One of the promising things regarding the situation is that retail merchants in all lines have enjoyed a better business since the holidays than usual. Stocks of seasonable goods are well reduced, and in many cases new supplies are being purchased. The call for groceries is steady and prices rule steady as well. Sugars are in moderate demand, and roasters and jobbers report a fair trade in coffees. Molasses and syrups are selling quite well, supplanting fruits to some extent. Canned goods are moving in a steady, healthy way, but are not in active request. Dried fruits are moving freely. The flour market is only ordinary, many buyers holding off with an expectation that states that the special Florida service is the higher range of prices will be of short duration. The bottom is out of the egg market, and they are weak at prices days and Saturdays, and thus far every quoted. Receipts from shipping points indicate that the hens have resumed laying, but a severe cold snap would check the declining tendency. The butter market shows less strength, but prices are unchanged and choice stock meets with ready sale. Cheese is firm and unchanged. Provisions are fairly active, with prices on standard goods well held. Fruits and vegetables continue Cleveland & Pittsburg between Ravenna to drag. On Commission row prices are so high on most lines of goods that they move slowly. There is an improved demand for fancy oranges, but apples move slowly on account of the high prices for choice stock. Poor stock is difficult to dispose of at concessions. Irish potatoes are the same in way, looking for lower prices to prevail soon. Much depends on the condition of the weather during the next few days as regards prices of vegetables. At present the range is too high to admit of active markets. Dry goods are active for January. New business is of moderate extent, but considerable is doing in the way of replenishing broken stocks. An Eastern paper, commenting on the present conditions, says: "Business the past year was very good, and jobbers as a rule look for activity the greater part of 1902. Some think the heavy movement will culminate this year, and believe there will be a period of rather lean years, but do not expect a panic or the hard times that occurred in 1893-5. The development of the country is still going on, and industrial and agricultural operations are being conducted on an enormous scale. Manufacturers are increasing their capacities, and this is regarded as an index of continued prosperity. There are those who believe the country has reached the maximum of its consuming capacity for the present, yet they look for activity to continue the greater part of the present year. There is no surplus of goods in any line, and manufacturers are behind in their deliveries. Values are well held

SHORT ON TOMATOES.

Meeting of Indiana Canners' Association-Election of Officers. The Indiana Canners' Association, composed of packers of tomatoes, held its annual meeting at the Hotel English yesterday. About fifty members of the associapresent were from Ohio, Illinois and Michigan. They are members of the association. It was the purpose to fix a scale of prices for the coming season's pack at this meeting, but it was decided to postpone the matter until later. The canners decided that conditions are One of these conditions is the fact that the canners are not certain as to the amount of acreage they will control this season. There were various arguments against fixing a price at this time. A meeting of the national association will be held in Milwaukee in February, and it is thought had asked before the fall would only pay the after that meeting more will be known current rate. about conditions in different parts of the country. It is announced by packers that the tomato market is very bare at this time, as there was a great shortage last season. SPECIAL MEETINGS. A Series Begun at the First Presby-

Dr. Little addressed a good-sized congregation last night. The speaker implored his hearers to strive for higher thoughts and ambitions in this life and in that way they will reach the kingdom of heaven. He said people should have one goal in view and throughout their lives work to that end. Dr. Little will not be present for the meeting to-night, as he has been called

MRS. VANDEVENTER'S MIND

The Indiana Trust Company, as

Guardian, Brings Suit-Other Cases in the Local Courts.

The curious deals in real estate which were made by Mrs. Margaret Vandeventer before she was committed to the Central Hospital for the Insane by a justice's court commission will be 14 033c; finest Mocha and Java, 28 030c; Java further explained and discussed in Judge Leather's court. Suit was begun in Superior Court, Room 3, yesterday by the Indiana Trust Company, which is acting in the capacity of guardian for Mrs. Vandeventer, to recover from Geo. Seifert property on East Washington street, which it is alleged Mrs. Vandeventer disposed of when she was mentally incapable of transacting business affairs properly. The story of Mrs. Vandeventer's misfortunes while not new, is interesting and unusual. Somewhat more than a year ago, it is said, she lost by death a son of whom she was extremely fond. Her grief was so severe, her representatives say, that her mind became unbalanced and she became subject to hallucinations. It is also claimed that she was so unbalanced that trades in real estate which she made shortly afterward were distinctly to her disadvantage. She made several deals by which she disposed of houses and lots receiving in return, it is alleged, property of much less value. In February, 1900, she purchased a saloon at 924 East Washington street, and a few months afterwards before being declared insane she sold it to Hoolihan & Means. In May she was declared of unsound mind and sent to the hospital. Sometime ago suit was brought in Judge Allen's court to set aside a sale made by Mrs. Vandeventer on the ground of fraud, but Judge Allen in deciding the case ruled that there was no fraud apparent. He did not take up the element of insanity at all, it is stated, simply stating that the parties with whom Mrs. Van deventer had dealt acted within their business prerogatives in making good bargains.

the Falling of a Box. William P. Jungclaus and Fred W. Jungclaus, of the William P. Jungelaus Company; John Carey, Mary S. Carey, William Scott and Martha S. Scott, of the Daniel Stewart Drug Company and Newton Claypool are being sued by Ethel Gribben Morris for damages to the amount of $5,000. The injuries were suffered by the plaintiff, so the complaint alleges, at the time of the construction of the Newton Claypool building at the southwest corner of Pennsylvania and Ohio streets. The Jungclaus Company had charge of the erection of the building, Mr. Claypool is the owner of the property and the drug company is included in the suit as being partly responsible for the placing of a heavy box of glass in what t is claimed was a dangerous position for passers-by.
